TO THE TRAVELER ON MISSOURI'S HIGHWAYS:

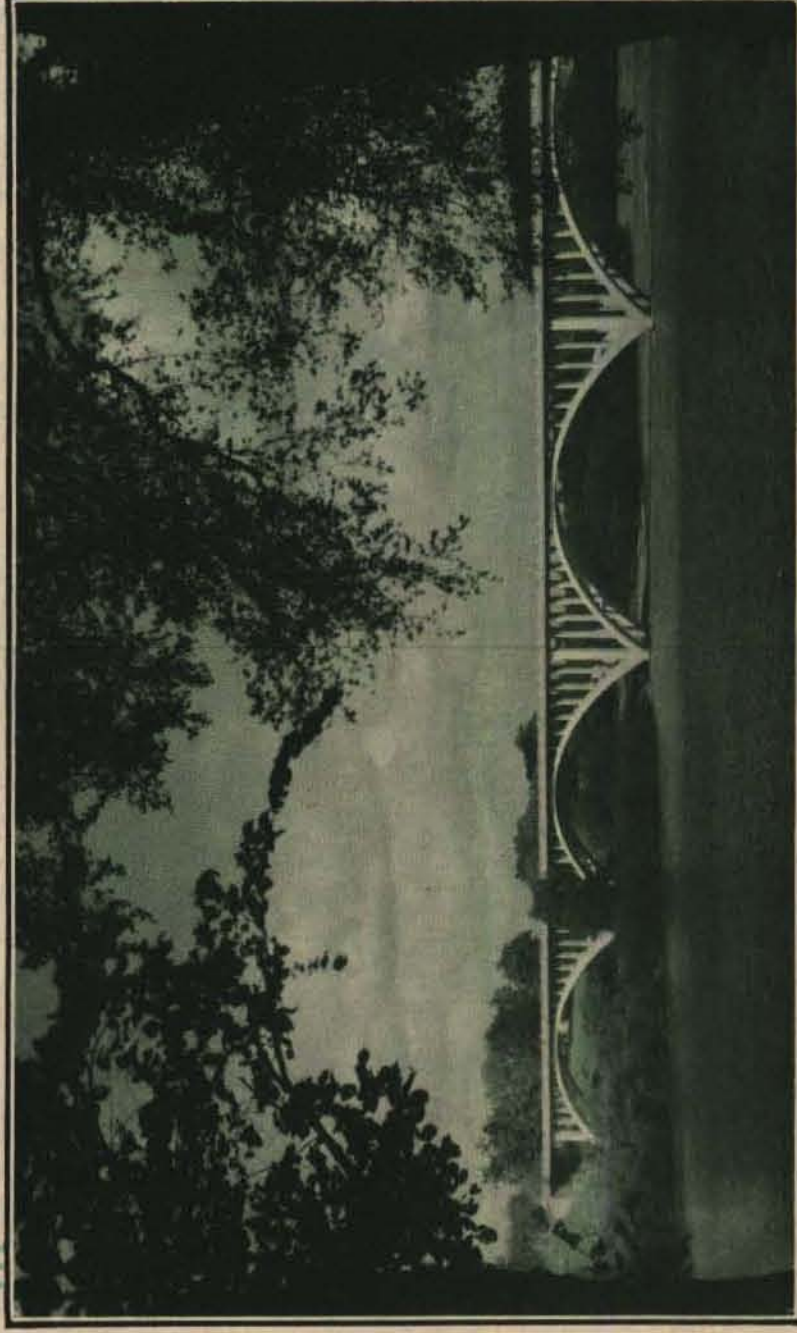

Missourians who view the scenes depicted here will find them a reminder of the scenic wonders and of our great natural resources. As you visit our great state, we hope you will find in their thriving industries, in their art galleries and museums, the evidence of our people. Our centers of learning, our galleries and museums, the evidence of our people. Our centers of learning, our galleries and museums, the evidence of our people. Our centers of learning, our galleries and museums, the evidence of our people.

Your attention is invited to these things with the hope that your visit will be a profitable one. We invite you to stay with us as long as you can. And when you leave our state, we hope you will remember Missouri, and come to see us again.
